List the SimaPro selected version and indicate the quantity

The price of SimaPro includes the Ecoinvent Database Licence (but it is possible to order SimaPro without Ecoinvent if preferred). The EN15804 construction industry version of the Ecoinvent database is available to purchase as an optional add-on. For UK orders, VAT will be added to the prices shown. Full up-front payment is required prior to the delivery of any order content.

Agreement

By signing this SímaPro Order Form, an Agreement is concluded between PRé Sustainability B.V. and the Customer.

Contractual terms

All order content, except where mentioned otherwise, is provided based on automatically renewing subscriptions. The service is purchased and delivered for a three-year initial Minimum Subscription Term or other initial Minimum Subscription Term as specified. The service renewal date is the first day of the month of the subscription anniversary. Service renews automatically annually if not terminated with a written three-month advance notice which cannot take effect before the end of the Minimum Subscription Term. The order requires full up-front payment prior to the delivery of any order content.

This contract incorporates One Click LCA and SímaPro General Service Terms (<https://www.oneclicklca.com/service-terms/>), as well as the terms of third-party databases referenced below, and applies to the laws of the Netherlands to the exclusion of other jurisdictions. Any dispute arising out of or in connection with the contract shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Netherlands Commercial Court (NCC) in Amsterdam, the Netherlands. These terms also apply to additional orders placed by the Customer. The contract is between the Customer and PRé Sustainability BV in the Netherlands. Any persons or companies in the UK that the Customer may deal with are not parties to the contract and have no liability under the contract. Any and all general terms and conditions of the Customer are excluded. The Customer agrees that any purchase order (PO) submitted is for administrative purposes only, and that any terms or conditions appearing on the PO that are additional or different from this Agreement are not binding to the Supplier or applicable to the Agreement, also when the services specified by the order are delivered and invoiced against such PO. PRé Sustainability BV may update its general terms from time to time.

Applicable third-party terms and conditions:
